Jess needs a fresh start. She's broke and alone, and she's just left her job under less than ideal circumstances. Her half-brother Ben didn't sound thrilled when she asked if she could crash with him for a bit, but he didn't say no, and surely everything will look better from Paris. Only when she shows up, to find a very nice apartment, (could Ben really have afforded this?) he's not there. The longer Ben stays missing, the more Jess starts to dig...

SEARCHING

When you do a search, you can limit by format by clicking the icons above the results.

You can also narrow your results using facets to the side. Clicking on the facet shows how many items there are in that category. Check the box to select it.

Tip: to find items that are not aimed at children, choose the facets “adult,” “general,” and “unknown.” Coding for children’s items is more consistent.

More Info

You have to be signed in to your account to place a hold or use the lists feature.

When you click “Place Hold,” you will get a screen explaining how holds work. Click “Submit Hold Request” to place the hold.

Place Hold on Ithaca

Holds allow you to request that a title be put aside for you at the library. Once the title is available, we will let you know that it is ready for you. If you no longer need the item when it becomes available, please let us know.
